▶ Simon Chagnoux presented "Les Herbonautes"

  ▶ web-based software platform

  ▶ for crowdsourcing of herbarium label transcriptions developed

  ▶ the system was up and running (=> ready to use)

  ▶ the language configuration has been decoupled from the software code

  ▶ it was agreed that the ISTC will not start a new initiative or sub-group for activities related to crowdsourcing of label transcriptions

  ⇒ However, several ISTC-members expressed their strong interest to test the software for their transcription activities

  ⇒ Paris will provide the software (open source) as well as the necessary technical background information on request
